Proposed locations

June, July, August have open slots for “local” diving.

- One longer trip – Tenkiller/Canyon/Mammoth
- One shorter – Scuba Ranch/Athens
- One medium – Lake Travis

	Location	Comments	When
Scuba Ranch	1hr/50 miles east of DFW	Been there, done it but close and good facilities.
Athens Scuba Park	1.5hr/90 miles SE of DFW	Been there, done it but close and good facilities.
Wheeler Branch Reservoir	1.5hr/100 miles SW of DFW	Been there, done it. Poor vis. Good facilities. No camping.	Poker Run Sept.
Canyon Lake	4.5hr/300 miles S of DFW	Long drive. Clear? Cold below thermocline.
Blue Lagoon	3 hr/200 miles S of DFW	Good vis. Long-ish drive, no fish life or vegetation. Primitive camping available.
Mammoth Lake	4.5hr/310 miles S of DFW	Long drive. Larger than Scuba Range/Athens and deeper. A new place to visit...
Lake Travis (Windy Point / Mansfield Dam)	3.5hr/210 miles S of DFW	Longish drive but traditionally two very popular dive destinations.
Tenkiller Lake (OK)	4.5hr/270 miles NE of DFW	Supposedly a clear lake. Long drive. Beautiful. Plenty of camping and rentals. https://bluewaterokc.com/lake-tenkiller/	June/July
Balmorehea State Park	8hr/500 miles SW of DFW	Clear water, shallow, small. Unusual dive. McDonald Observatory, Ford Davis, etc. Spring feed so constant temperature year round.
Tyler State Park	1.5hr/110 miles E of DFW	Been there, done it. Very nice camping and nature. Trails	Pumpkin dive and Easter egg hunt
