- One longer trip – Tenkiller/Canyon/Mammoth
- One shorter – Scuba Ranch/Athens
- One medium – Lake Travis

| | Location | Comments | When |
|---|---------------------------|---|----------------------------------|
| Scuba Ranch | 1hr/50 miles east of DFW | Been there, done it but close and good facilities. | |
| Athens Scuba Park | 1.5hr/90 miles SE of DFW | Been there, done it but close and good facilities. | |
| Wheeler Branch Reservoir | 1.5hr/100 miles SW of DFW | Been there, done it. Poor vis. Good facilities. No camping. | Poker Run Sept. |
| Canyon Lake | 4.5hr/300 miles S of DFW | Long drive. Clear? Cold below thermocline. | |
| Blue Lagoon | 3 hr/200 miles S of DFW | Good vis. Long-ish drive, no fish life or vegetation. Primitive camping available. | |
| Mammoth Lake | 4.5hr/310 miles S of DFW | Long drive. Larger than Scuba Range/Athens and deeper. A new place to visit... | |
| Lake Travis (Windy Point / Mansfield Dam) | 3.5hr/210 miles S of DFW | Longish drive but traditionally two very popular dive destinations. | |
| Tenkiller Lake (OK) | 4.5hr/270 miles NE of DFW | Supposedly a clear lake. Long drive. Beautiful. Plenty of camping and rentals. https://bluewaterokc.com/lake-tenkiller/ | June/July |
| Balmorhea State Park | 8hr/500 miles SW of DFW | Clear water, shallow, small. Unusual dive. McDonald Observatory, Ford Davis, etc. Spring feed so constant temperature year round. | |
| Tyler State Park | 1.5hr/110 miles E of DFW | Been there, done it. Very nice camping and nature. Trails | Pumpkin dive and Easter egg hunt |
